

dirty

A feature documentary by David Evans
Maria Holter &
Catherine Williamson

"I spoke with the garden, and when they destroyed
the garden it was like cutting my tongue out of my mouth,
a cruel and unusual punishment."

Adam Purple

Winner & awarded
Certificate of Merit -
San Francisco
Film Festival

Nominated best feature documentary 1998 -
International
Documentary
Association

A YEAR IN EAST VILLAGE GARDENS

20TH ANNIVERSARY SCREENING

Thursday 8th October at 7pm

Museum of Reclaimed Urban Space (MoRUS)

155 Avenue C, New York NY 10009 info@morusnyc.org

YouTube: Keyword Dirt Documentary Adam Purple

Hollywood.com: "An ode to New York's East Village community gardens as told by three men who, amid their own personal struggles, manage to give life to these small, rare patches of fertile ground: Adam, a radical who makes earth from his own waste; Normand, who has his last summer in the garden before dying of AIDS; and Pablo, a squatter who tends his garden while facing eviction."